

Your Global Research Partner

SECTOR
PAINTS & COATINGS

CLIENT
A Prominent Paints & Coatings Brand

GEOGRAPHIES COVERED CANADA

METHODOLOGY ADOPTED
Computer-assisted web interviews (CAWI)

MRPCHJ07012026P2

STUDY BACKGROUND

The client aimed to evaluate customer satisfaction levels across retail and contractor segments to strengthen long-term customer relationships and improve service delivery.

BUSINESS OBJECTIVE

- Measure overall customer satisfaction
- Understand loyalty drivers and repurchase intent
- Assess retailer and contractor experience

Retail customers and painting contractors

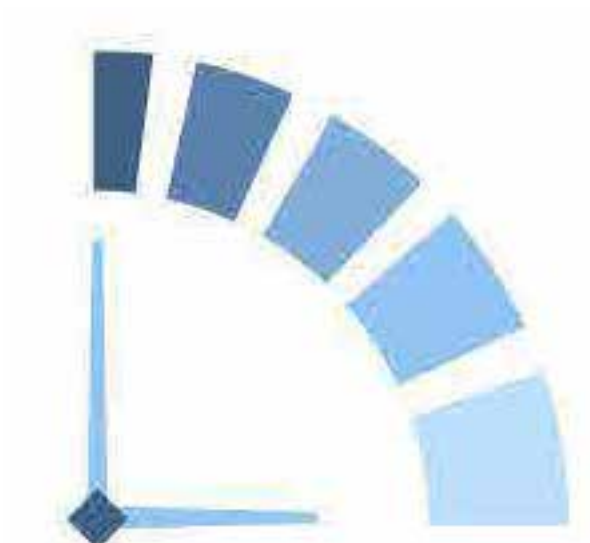

TARGET
RESPONDENT

RESEARCH OBJECTIVE

- Evaluate satisfaction across product quality, availability, and service
- Measure likelihood to recommend and repeat purchase
- Identify key touchpoints impacting customer experience

SAMPLE SIZE

100 respondents

4 Weeks

TIMELINE

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The customer satisfaction and loyalty assessment was designed to evaluate the experience of retail customers and painting contractors across the Canadian decorative paints market. The study measured satisfaction levels, loyalty indicators, and key customer touchpoints influencing the overall brand experience. Using a structured online methodology, the research provided a consistent framework to assess customer relationships and support experience improvement initiatives.